

Janet Gaynor

1906 – 1984

Janet Gaynor became one of the most famous people of Hollywood. She was the first who won the Academy Award for best Actress. This was in 1928 for her roles in 3 movies: Seventh Heaven, Sunrise and Street Angel, all silent movies. This was the only time that someone won the award for more than one movie.

Here success continued into the sound movie era. She received a nomination for the best actress Academy Award in 1937 for her role in A Star is Born.
